Kedarnath - Tungnath

The Kedarnath - Chopta - Tungnath trip is a perfect blend of spirituality and adventure in Uttarakhand, offering breathtaking Himalayan landscapes, sacred temples, and thrilling treks. The journey begins with a visit to Kedarnath, one of the 12 Jyotirlingas, located at an altitude of 11,755 ft, accessible via a 16 km trek from Gaurikund or by helicopter. After seeking blessings at the revered temple, the trip continues to Chopta, a picturesque hill station known as the "Mini Switzerland of India," offering serene meadows and a gateway to high-altitude trekking. From Chopta, a 5 km trek leads to Tungnath, the highest Shiva temple in the world at 12,073 ft, followed by an optional 1.5 km ascent to Chandrashila Peak, which provides panoramic views of the mighty Himalayan ranges, including Nanda Devi, Trishul, and Chaukhamba. This trip is ideal for both pilgrims and adventure enthusiasts, best visited between May to June and September to November, avoiding the monsoon season due to landslides. With a mix of divine energy, scenic beauty, and challenging treks, this journey promises a spiritually enriching and visually mesmerizing experience.

Special thanks to our trip coordinator, Mayuresh and Pranav for making the trip spectacular.
Their leadership during the Kedarnath trek was outstanding and knowledge of the area, dedication to ensuring everyone's safety and enjoyment were truly commendable.
The arrangements made near temple for stay were really nice.
The experience and treatment which we received during entire tour was top notch. I'll definitely recommend Maharashtra Desha to all. In one line it's a budget friendly and best travelling group to plan all the trips.
